

MEET the TEACHER

Alyssa Folkes

about me...

This is my fourth year teaching and my fourth year at CCDC, where I am a Lead GSRP Teacher. I love watching my students grow academically and socially throughout the school year. My students would probably describe me as funny, helpful, and nice, and I take pride in keeping my classroom organized and running smoothly. Outside of school, I enjoy shopping, catching up on sleep, and spending time with my husband, our dog, and my mom, who is also my best friend. I'm currently working toward my bachelor's degree, so my students might be surprised to learn that I'm still a student too! Above all, I hope every child remembers my classroom as a welcoming, loving place where they always felt supported.
